Barrett Distribution Centers Joins Distribution Centers of America (DCA) Boston Based Provider Strengthens Northeast Service Region

Franklin, MA – January 18, 2010: Barrett Distribution Centers (BDC), a multi-regional provider of supply chain services, has assumed New England regional representation and increases Northeast presence for the national marketing cooperative, Distribution Centers of America (DCA). Membership in DCA, now celebrating 25 years of national advantage through regional excellence, is a highly coveted privilege, by invitation only and reflects the voted approval of all member companies.

Founded in 1941, BDC has grown from a one customer operation to 8 locations servicing customers in the retail, CPG, consumer electronics, footwear & apparel, food, medical, and industrial manufacturing industries. Three generations of Barrett management have instilled a zeal for delivering customer satisfaction and continuous improvement.

“All of our growth has been customer driven,” says BDC’s Tim Barrett, COO. “We look forward to working with TeamDCA to fulfill our customers’ supply chain requirements and expand upon the relevance and value we bring to all stakeholders.” Through BDC’s Blueprint process, which is a proprietary approach to designing, building, implementing and executing solutions, BDC is able to improve performance and enhance brand loyalty with end customers.
